Dear Parents/Carers

Booknic – Thursday 11th July

On Thursday 11th July, our very first Booknic will take place! (Invitation previously emailed).

The event will begin after registration at around 9am. After you drop your child off, please wait outside the front of school until after the morning registers have been completed. We will then let you know which area you will be sitting in.

If you have more than one child taking part in our Booknic event, please stand outside your eldest child's classroom and then you can collect your younger child to join you once everyone is settled.

A small snack will be provided but we are unable to offer a drink so please pack your own if you wish (water refills can be provided). If you have a picnic blanket, please bring that with you also.

Your child has been working hard on creating their own book for this event and this is an opportunity for them to share their achievements with you. We are very excited!

Children will bring their book home at the end of the week to share with wider family and friends, and for those who cannot attend.

Yours faithfully

Mrs Shand
